exceeding ¹[three rupee] instead of the duty, if any, prescribed for it in that Schedule.

²[4-B. Stamp duty on amalgamation etc. of companies]
Whenever an amalgamation or arrangement of companies with such persons as prescribed in section 391 and section 394 of the Companies Act, 1956 takes place, the stamp duty shall be charged thereon as a conveyance under the provisions of this Act.]

5. Instruments relating to several distinct matters
Any instrument comprising or relating to several distinct matters shall be chargeable with the aggregate amount of the duties with which separate instruments, each comprising or relating to one of such matters, would be chargeable under this Act.

6. Instruments coming within several description in Schedule I
Subject to the provisions of the last preceding section, an instrument so framed as to come within two or more of the description ³[given] in Schedule I, shall, where the duties chargeable thereunder are different, be chargeable only with the highest of such duties:

Provided that nothing in this Act contained shall render chargeable with duty exceeding ⁴[five rupees] a counterpart or duplicate of any instrument chargeable with duty and in respect of which the proper duty has been paid.

7. Omitted.

8. Omitted.

9. Power to reduce, remit or compound duties
⁵[The Government] may, by rule or order published in the Government Gazette,-
(a) reduce or remit, whether prospectively or retrospectively, in the whole or any part of the State, the duties with which any instruments or any particular class of instruments, or any of the instruments belonging to such class, or any instruments when executed by or in favour of any particular class of persons, or by or in favour of any members of such class, are chargeable, and
(b) provide for the composition or consolidation of duties in the case of issues by any incorporated company or other body corporate of debentures, bonds or other marketable securities.

² Inserted by Act III of 2006, w.e.f. 6.1.2006.
⁵ In section 9, 10, 16, 18, 26, 33(3), 37, 49, 57, 70(1), 75, 76-A and 78 for the words “His Highness” the words “the Government” substituted by Act X of 1996.
B.- OF STAMPS AND THE MODE OF USING THEM.

10. Duties how to be paid
   (1) Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Act, all duties with which any instruments are chargeable shall be paid, and such payment shall be indicated on such instruments, by means only of stamps—
       (a) according to the provisions herein contained; or
       (b) when no such provision is applicable thereto—as ¹[the Government] may by rule direct.
   (2) The rules made under sub-section (1) may, among other matters, regulate,—
       (a) in the case of each kind of instrument the description of stamps which may be used;
       (b) in the case of instruments stamped with impressed stamps — the number of stamps which may be used;
       (c) in the case of bills of exchange or promissory notes written in any Oriental language — the size of the paper on which they are written.

11. Use of adhesive stamps
   The following instruments may be stamped with adhesive stamps, namely:-
   (a) instruments chargeable with the duty of ²[two rupees and one rupee] except parts of bills of exchange payable otherwise that on demand and drawn in sets;
   (b) bills of exchange in ³[] and promissory notes drawn or made out of the State;
   (c) entry as an advocate or pleader on the roll of the High Court;
   (d) notarial acts; and
   (e) transfers by endorsement of shares in any incorporated company or other body corporate.

12. Cancellation of adhesive stamps
   (1) (a) Whoever affixes any adhesive stamp to any instrument chargeable with duty which has been executed by any person shall, when affixing such stamp, cancel the same so that it cannot be used again; and
       (b) whoever executes any instrument on any paper bearing an adhesive stamp shall, at the time of execution, unless such stamp has been already cancelled in manner aforesaid, cancel the same so that it cannot be used again.
   (2) Any instrument bearing an adhesive stamp which has not been cancelled so that it cannot be used again, shall, so far as such stamp is concerned, be deemed to be unstamped.

¹In sections 9, 10, 16, 18, 26, 33 (3), 37, 49, 57, 70(1), 75, 76-A and 78 for the words “His Highness” the words “the Government” substituted by Act X of 1996.
The person required by sub-section (1) to cancel an adhesive stamp may cancel it by writing on or across the stamp his name or initials or the name or initials of his form with the true date of his so writing, or in any other effectual manner.

13. Instruments stamped with impressed stamps how to be written

   Every instrument written upon paper stamped with an impressed stamp shall be written in such manner that the stamp may appear on the face of the instrument and cannot be used for or applied to any other instrument.

   Where a stamp duty payable in respect of an instrument is made of two or more papers stamped with impressed stamp, the instrument shall be written in such manner that some part of the writing shall, as far as possible, appear on each such paper so as to leave as few blank sheets as possible. Each blank sheet shall be dated and signed and shown as part of the instrument.

14. Only one instrument to be on same stamp

   No second instrument chargeable with duty shall be written upon a piece of stamped paper upon which an instrument chargeable with duty has already been written:

   Provided that nothing in this section shall prevent any endorsements which is duly stamped or is not chargeable with duty being made upon any instrument for the purpose of transferring any right created or evidenced thereby, or of acknowledging the receipt of any money or goods the payment or delivery of which is secured thereby.

15. Instrument written contrary to section 13 or 14 deemed unstamped

   Every instrument written in contravention of section 13 or section 14 shall be deemed to be unstamped.

16. Denoting duty

   Where the duty with which an instrument is chargeable, or its exemption from duty, depends in any manner upon the duty actually paid in respect of another instrument, the payment of such last mentioned duty shall, if application is made in writing to the Collector for that purpose, and on production of both the instruments, be denoted upon such first-mentioned instrument, by endorsement under the hand of the Collector or in such other manner (if any) as [the Government] may by rule prescribe.

C. - OF THE TIME OF STAMPING INSTRUMENTS

17. Instrument executed in the State

   All instruments chargeable with duty and executed by any person in the State shall be stamped before or at the time of execution.

1 See foot-note under Section 9.
18. Instruments other than bills and notes executed out of the State

(1) Every instrument chargeable with duty executed only out of the State, and not being a bill of exchange [*] or promissory note, may be stamped within three months after it has been first received in the State.

(2) Where any such instrument cannot, with reference to the description of stamp prescribed therefor, be duly stamped by a private person, it may be taken within the said period of three months to the Collector, who shall stamp the same, in such manner as [the Government] may by rule prescribe, with a stamp of such value as the person so taking such instrument may require and pay for.

19. Bills and notes drawn out of the State

The first holder in the State of any bill of exchange [*] or promissory note drawn or made out of the State shall, before he presents the same for acceptance or payment, or endorses, transfers, otherwise negotiates the same in the State, affix thereto the proper stamp and cancel the same:

Provided that,-

(a) If, at the time any such bill of exchange [*] or note comes into the hands of any holder thereof in the State, the proper adhesive stamp is affixed thereto and cancelled in manner prescribed by section 12 and such holder has no reason to believe that such stamp was affixed or cancelled otherwise than by the person and at the time required by this Act, such stamp shall, so far as relates to such holder, be deemed to have been duly affixed and cancelled;

(b) nothing contained in this proviso shall relieve any person from any penalty incurred by him for omitting to affix or cancel a stamp.

D - OF VALUATIONS FOR DUTY

20. Conversion of amount expressed in foreign currency

When an instrument is chargeable with ad valorem duty in respect of any money expressed in any currency other than that of [India], such duty shall be calculated on the value of such money in the currency of [India] according to the rate of exchange prevailing in India on the day of the date of the instrument under Notification of the Governor-General in Council issued under sub-section (2) of section 20 of Act II of 1899].

2 See foot-note under Section 9.
5 Substituted by A.L.O. 2008 for “British India”.

21. Stock and marketable securities how to be valued

   Where an instrument is chargeable with ad valorem duty in respect of any stock or of any marketable or other security, such duty shall be calculated on the value of such stock or security according to the average price or the value thereof on the day of the date of the instrument.

22. Effect of statement of rate of exchange or average price

   Where an instrument contains a statement of current rate of exchange, or average price, as the case may require, and is stamped in accordance with such statement, it shall, so far as regards the subject-matter of such statement, be presumed, until the contrary is proved, to be duly stamped.

23. Instruments reserving interest

   Where interest is expressly made payable by the terms of an instrument such instrument shall not be chargeable with duty higher than that with which it would have been chargeable had no mention of interest been made therein.

23-A. Certain instruments connected with mortgages of marketable securities to be chargeable as agreements

   (1) Where an instrument (not being a promissory note or bill of exchange) –

   (a) is given upon the occasion of the deposit of any marketable security by way of security for money advanced or to be advanced by way of loan, or for an existing or future debt, or

   (b) makes redeemable or qualifies a duly stamped transfer, intended as a security, of any marketable security, it shall be chargeable with duty as if it were an agreement or memorandum of an agreement chargeable with duty under Article No. 5 (c) of Schedule 1.

   (2) A release or discharge of any such instrument shall only be chargeable with the like duty.

24. How transfer in consideration of debt or subject to future payment, etc. to be charged

   Where any property is transferred to any person in consideration, wholly or in part, of any debt due to him, or subject either certainly or contingently to the payment or transfer of any money or stock, where being or constituting a charge or incumbrances upon the property or not, such debt, money or stock is to be deemed the whole or part, as the case may be, of the consideration in respect whereof the transfer is chargeable with ad valorem duty:

   Provided that nothing in this section shall apply to any such certificate of sale as is mentioned in Article No. 16 of Schedule 1.

   Explanation. — In the case of a sale of property subject to a mortgage or other incumbrance, any unpaid mortgage-money or money charged, together with the interest (if any) due on the same, shall be deemed to be part of the consideration for the sale:

\[\text{1 Substituted by Act III of 2000, S.11.}\]
Provided that, where property subject to a mortgage is transferred to the mortgagee, he shall be entitled to deduct from the duty payable on the transfer the amount of any duty already paid in respect of the mortgage.

Illustrations

1. A owes B Rs. 1,000. A sells a property to B, the consideration being Rs. 500 and the release of the previous debt of Rs. 1,000. Stamp duty is payable on Rs. 1,500.

2. A sells a property to B for Rs. 500 which is subject to a mortgage to C for Rs. 1,000 and unpaid interest Rs. 200. Stamp-duty is payable on Rs. 1,700.

3. A mortgages a house of the value of Rs. 10,000 to B for Rs. 5,000. B afterwards buys the house from A. Stamp-duty is payable on Rs. 10,000 less the amount of stamp-duty already paid for the mortgage.

25. Valuation in case of an annuity, etc

Where an instrument is executed to secure the payment of an annuity or other sum payable periodically, or where the consideration for a conveyance is an annuity or other sum payable periodically, the amount secured by such instrument or the consideration for such conveyance, as the case may be, shall, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to be,—

(a) where the sum is payable for a definite period so that the total amount to be paid can be previously ascertained — such total amount;

(b) where the sum is payable in perpetuity or for an indefinite time not terminable with any life in being at the date of such instrument or conveyance — the total amount which, according to the terms of such instrument or conveyance, will or may be payable during the period of ten years calculated from the date on which the first payment becomes due; and

(c) where the sum is payable for an indefinite time terminable with any life in being at the date of such instrument or conveyance — the maximum amount which will or may be payable as aforesaid during the period of ten years calculated from the date on which the first payment becomes due.

26. Stamp where value of subject-matter is indeterminate

Where the amount or value of the subject-matter of any instrument chargeable with ad valorem duty cannot be, or (in the case of an instrument executed before the commencement of this Act) could not have been ascertained at the date of its execution or first execution, nothing shall be claimable under such instrument more than the highest amount of value for which, if stated in an instrument of the same description, the stamp actually used would, at the date of such execution, have been sufficient:
Provided that, in the case of the lease of a mine in which royalty or a share of the produce is received as the rent or part of the rent, it shall be sufficient to have estimated such royalty or the value of such share, for the purpose of stamp-duty,—

(a) when the lease has been granted by or on behalf of [the Government], at such amount or value as the Collector may, having regard to all the circumstances of the case, have estimated as likely to be payable by way of royalty or share to [the Government] under the lease, or

(b) when the lease has been granted by any other person, at twenty thousand rupees a year; and the whole amount of such royalty or share, whatever it may be, shall be claimable under such lease:

Provided also that, where proceedings have been taken in respect of an instrument under section 31 or 41, the amount certified by the Collector shall be deemed to be the stamp actually used at the date of execution.

27. Facts affecting duty to be set forth in instrument

The consideration (if any) and all other facts and circumstances affecting the chargeability of any instrument with duty, or the amount of the duty with which it is chargeable, shall be fully and truly set forth therein.

28. Direction as to duty in case of certain conveyance

(1) Where any property has been contracted to be sold for one consideration for the whole, and is conveyed to the purchaser in separate parts by different instruments, the consideration shall be apportioned in such manner as the parties think fit, provided that a distinct consideration for each separate part is set forth in the conveyance relating thereto, and such conveyance shall be chargeable with ad valorem duty in respect of such distinct consideration.

(2) Where property contracted to be purchased for one consideration for the whole, by two or more persons jointly, or by any person for himself and others, or wholly for others, is conveyed in parts by separate instruments to the persons by or for whom the same was purchased, for distinct parts of the consideration, the conveyance of each separate part shall be chargeable with ad valorem duty in respect of the distinct part of the consideration therein specified.

(3) Where a person, having contracted for the purchase of any property but not having obtained a conveyance thereof, contracts to sell the same to any other person and the property is in consequence conveyed immediately to the sub-purchaser, the conveyance shall be chargeable with ad valorem duty in respect of the consideration for the sale by the original purchaser to the sub-purchaser.

1 In section 9, 10, 16, 18, 26, 33 (3), 37, 49, 57, 70(1), 75, 76-A and 78 for the words “His Highness” the words “the Government” substituted by Act X of 1996
(4) Where a person, having contracted for the purchase of any property but not having obtained a conveyance thereof, contracts to sell the whole, or any part thereof, to any other person or persons and the property is in consequence conveyed by the original seller to different persons in parts, the conveyance of each part sold to a sub-purchaser shall be chargeable with ad valorem duty in respect only of the consideration paid by such sub-purchaser, without regard to the amount or value of the original consideration; and the conveyance of the residue (if any) of such property to the original purchaser shall be chargeable with ad valorem duty in respect only of the excess of the original consideration over the aggregate of the consideration paid by the sub-purchaser:

Provided that the duty on such last-mentioned conveyance shall in no case be less than [three rupees].

(5) Where a sub-purchaser takes an actual conveyance of the interest of the person immediately selling to him, which is chargeable with ad valorem duty in respect of the consideration paid by him and is duly stamped accordingly, any conveyance to be afterwards made to him of the same property by the original seller shall be chargeable with a duty equal to that which would be chargeable on a conveyance for the consideration obtained by such original seller, or, where such duty would exceed [ten rupees], with a duty of [ten rupees].

F.- DUTY BY WHOM PAYABLE

29. Duties by whom payable

In the absence of an agreement to the contrary, the expense of providing the proper stamp shall be borne,-

CHAPTER III
ADJUDICATION AS TO STAMPS

31. Adjudication as to proper stamp
(1) When any instrument, whether executed or not and whether previously stamped or not, is brought to the Collector, and the person bringing it applies to have the opinion of that office as to the duty (if any) with which it is chargeable,

1 Substituted for “twenty rupees” by Act III of 2006, w.e.f. 6.1.2006.
and pays a fee of such amount (not exceeding five rupees and not less than ¹s\[fifty Paise\] as the Collector may in each case direct, the Collector shall determine the duty (if any) with which, in his judgement, the instrument is chargeable.

(2) For this purpose the Collector may require to be furnished with an abstract of the instrument, and also with such affidavit or other evidence as he may deem necessary to prove that all the facts and circumstances affecting the chargeability of the instrument with duty, or the amount of the duty with which it is chargeable, are fully and truly set forth therein, and may refuse to proceed up to any such application until such abstract and evidence have been furnished accordingly:

Provided that-

(a) no evidence furnished in pursuance of this section shall be used against any person in any civil proceeding, except in an enquiry as to the duty with which the instrument to which it relates is chargeable; and

(b) every person by whom any such evidence is furnished shall, on payment of the full duty with which the instrument to which it relates is chargeable, be relieved from any penalty which he may have incurred under this Act by reason of the omission to state truly in such instrument any of the facts or circumstances aforesaid.

2[(3) The market value of the property for purpose of stamp duty under the Act shall be determined by such authority and in such manner as may be prescribed under rules made by the Government.

(4) Where the Collector acting under sub-sections (1) and (2) has reason to believe that the market value of the property, which is the subject matter of instrument received by him for adjudication, has not been truly set forth therein, he shall, for the purposes of assessing the stamp duty determine the true market value of such property as laid down in the rules formulated for the purpose by the Government.

(5) When an instrument is brought to the Collector for adjudication, the person liable to pay the stamp duty under section 29 shall pay the same within sixty days from the date of service of the demand in respect of the stamp duty adjudicated by the Collector. If such person fails to pay the stamp duty so demanded within the said period, he shall be liable to pay a penalty at the rate of 20% of the deficient portion of the stamp duty, for every month or part thereof, from the date of execution of such instrument.]

32. Certificate by Collector

(1) When an instrument brought to the Collector under section 31, is, in his opinion, one of a description chargeable with duty, and-

(a) the Collector determines that it is already fully stamped, or

² Inserted by Act III of 2006, w.e.f. 6.1.2006.
(b) the duty determined by the Collector under section 31, or such a sum as, with the duty already paid in respect of the instrument, is equal to the duty so determined, has been paid, the Collector shall certify by endorsement on such instrument that the full duty (stating the amount) with which it is chargeable has been paid.

(2) When such instrument is, in his opinion, not chargeable with duty, the Collector shall certify in manner aforesaid that such instrument is not so chargeable.

(3) Any instrument upon which an endorsement has been made under this section, shall be deemed to be duly stamped or not chargeable with duty, as the case may be; and, if chargeable with duty, shall be receivable in evidence or otherwise, and may be acted upon and registered as if it had been originally duly stamped:

Provided that nothing in this section shall authorise the Collector to endorse-

(a) any instrument executed or first executed in the State and brought to him after the expiration of one month from the date of its execution or first execution, as the case may be; or
(b) any instrument executed or first executed out of the State and brought to him after the expiration of three months after it has been first received in the State.

CHAPTER IV
INSTRUMENTS NOT DULY STAMPED

33. Examination and impounding of instruments

(1) Every person having by law or consent of parties authority to receive evidence, and every persons in charge of a public office, except an officer of police, before whom any instrument, chargeable in his opinion, with duty, is produced or comes in the performance of his functions, shall, if it appears to him that such instrument is not duly stamped, impound the same.

(2) For that purpose every such person shall examine every instrument so chargeable and so produced or coming before him in order to ascertain whether it is stamped with a stamp of the value and description required by the law in force in the State when such instrument was executed or first executed:

Provided that-

(a) nothing herein contained shall be deemed to require any Magistrate or Judge of a Criminal Court to examine or impound, if he does not think fit so to do, any instrument coming before him in the course of any proceeding other than a proceeding under Chapter XII or Chapter XXXVI of the Code of Criminal Procedure;
(b) in the case of a Judge of the High Court, the duty of examining and impounding any instrument under this section may be delegated to such officer as the Court appoints in this behalf.

(3) For the purposes of this section, in cases of doubt, \[the Government\] may determine what offices should be public offices and who shall be deemed to be persons in charge of such public offices.

34. Special provision as to unstamped receipts

Where any receipt chargeable with a duty of \[one rupee\] is tendered to or produced before any officer unstamped in the course of the audit of any public account, such officer may in his discretion instead, of impounding the instrument, require a duly stamped receipt to be substituted thereof.

35. Instruments not duly stamped inadmissible in evidence, etc

No instrument chargeable with duty shall be admitted in evidence for any purpose by any person having by law or consent of parties authority to receive evidence, or shall be acted upon, registered or authenticated by any such person or by any public officer, unless such instrument is duly stamped:

Provided that-

\[(a)\] any such instrument not being instrument chargeable with a duty of \[one rupee\] or a bill of exchange or promissory note, \[or acknowledgement\] shall, subject to all just exceptions, be admitted in evidence on payment of the duty with which the same is chargeable, or in the case of an instrument insufficiently stamped, of the amount required to make up such duty together with a penalty of \[ten rupees\], or ten times the amount of the proper duty or if deficient portion thereof exceeds \[ten rupees\], of a sum equal to ten times such duty or portion;

The deficiency in duty and penalty payable under this section shall be realised in revenue stamps];

\[(b)\] where any person from whom a stamped receipt could have been demanded, has given an unstamped receipt and such receipt, if stamped, would be admissible in evidence against him, then such receipt shall be admitted in evidence against him on payment of a penalty of one rupee by the person tendering it;

\[(c)\] where a contract or agreement of any kind is effected by correspondence consisting of two or more letters and any one of the letters bears the proper stamp, the contract or agreement shall be deemed to be duly stamped;

\[(d)\] nothing herein contained shall prevent the admission of any instrument in evidence in any proceeding in a Criminal Court, other than a proceeding under Chapter XII or Chapter XXXVI of the Code of Criminal Procedure;

1 See footnote under section 9.
3 Proviso (a) substituted by Act VII of 1994.
4 Inserted by Act II of 1956.
(e) nothing herein contained shall prevent the admission of any instrument in any Court when such instrument has been executed by or on behalf of the Government, or where it bears the certificate of the Collector as provided by section 32 or any other provision of this Act.

36. Admission of instrument where not to be questioned
Where an instrument has been admitted in evidence, such admission shall not, except as provided in section 61, be called in question at any stage of the same suit or proceeding on the ground that the instrument has not been duly stamped.

37. Admission of improperly stamped instruments
1[The Government] may make rules providing that, where an instrument bears a stamp of sufficient amount but of improper description, it may, on payment of the duty with which the same is chargeable, be certified to be duly stamped, and any instrument so certified shall then be deemed to have been duly stamped as from the date of its execution.

38. Instruments impounded how dealt with
(1) When the person impounding an instrument under section 33 has by law or consent of parties authority to receive evidence and admits such instrument in evidence upon payment of a penalty as provided by section 35 or of duty as provided by section 37, he shall send to the Collector an authenticated copy of such instrument, together with a certificate in writing, stating the amount of duty and penalty levied in respect thereof, and shall send such amount to the Collector, or to such person as he may appoint in this behalf.
(2) In every other case, the person so impounding an instrument shall send in original to the Collector.

39. Collector's power to refund penalty paid under section 38, sub-section(1)
(1) When a copy of an instrument is sent to the Collector under section 38, sub-section (1), he may, if he thinks fit, refund any portion of the penalty in excess of five rupees which has been paid in respect of such instrument.
(2) When such instrument has been impounded only because it has been written in contravention of section 13 or section 14, the Collector may refund the whole penalty so paid.

40. Collector's power to stamp instruments impounded
(1) When the Collector impounds any instrument under section 33, or receives any instrument sent to him under section 38, sub-section (2), not being an instrument chargeable with a duty of 2[one rupee] only or a bill of exchange or promissory note,3[or acknowledgement,] he shall adopt the following procedure:—

1 See footnote under Section 9.
2 Substituted by Act III of 2000 for “ten Paise”.
3 Inserted by Act II of 1956.
(a) if he is of opinion that such instrument is duly stamped, or is not chargeable with duty, he shall certify by endorsement thereon that it is duly stamped, or that it is not so chargeable, as the case may be;

(b) if he is of opinion that such instrument is chargeable with duty and is not duly stamped, he shall require the payment of the proper duty or the amount required to make up the same, together with a penalty of five rupees; or, if he thinks fit, an amount not exceeding ten times the amount of the proper duty or of the deficient portion thereof, whether such amount exceeds or falls short of five rupees:

Provided that, when such instrument has been impounded only because it has been written in contravention of section 13 or section 14, the Collector may, if he thinks fit, remit the whole penalty prescribed by this section.

(2) Every certificate under clause (a) of sub-section (1) shall, for the purposes of this Act, be the conclusive evidence of the matters stated therein.

(3) Where an instrument has been sent to the Collector under section 38, sub-section (2), the Collector shall, when he has dealt with it as provided by this section, return it to the impounding officer.

41. Instruments unduly stamped by accident

If any instrument chargeable with duty and not duly stamped, not being an instrument chargeable with a duty of one rupee only or a bill of exchange or promissory note, or acknowledgement, is produced by any person of his own motion before the Collector within one year from the date of its execution or first execution, and such person brings to the notice of the Collector the fact that such instrument is not duly stamped and offers to pay to the Collector the amount of the proper duty, or the amount required to make up the same, and the Collector is satisfied that the omission to duly stamp such instrument has been occasioned by accident, mistake or urgent necessity, he may, instead of proceeding under sections 33 and 40, receive such amount and proceed as next hereinafter prescribed.

42. Enforcement of instruments on which duty has been paid under sections 35, 40 or 41

(1) When the duty and penalty (if any) leviable in respect of any instrument have been paid under section 35, section 40 or section 41, the person admitting such instrument in evidence or the Collector, as the case may be, shall certify by endorsement thereon that the proper duty or, as the case may be, the proper duty and penalty (stating the amount of each) have been levied in respect thereof, and the name and residence of the person paying them.

(2) Every instrument so endorsed shall thereupon be admissible in evidence, and may be registered and acted upon and authenticated as if it had been duly charged with duty and duly stamped.

1 Clause (b) substituted by Act VII of 1994.
3 Inserted by Act II of 1956.
stamped, and shall be delivered on his application in this behalf to the person from whose possession it came into the hands of the officer impounding it, or as such person may direct:

Provided that-

(a) no instrument which has been admitted in evidence upon payment of duty and a penalty under section 35, shall be so delivered before the expiration of one month from the date of such impounding, or if the Collector has certified that its further detention is necessary and has not cancelled such certificate;

(b) nothing in this section shall affect the Code of Civil Procedure, Order XIII, rule 9.

43. Prosecution for offence against Stamp-law

The taking of proceedings or the payment of a penalty under this Chapter in respect of any instrument shall not bar the prosecution of any person who appears to have committed an offence against the Stamps-law in respect of such instrument:

Provided that no such prosecution shall be instituted in the case of any instrument in respect of which such a penalty has been paid, unless it appears to the Collector that the offence was committed with an intention of evading payment of the proper duty.

44. Persons paying duty or penalty may recover the same in certain cases

(1) When any duty or penalty has been paid under section 35, section 37, section 40 or section 41, by any person in respect of an instrument, and, by agreement or under the provisions of section 29 or any other enactment in force at the time such was executed, some other person was bound to bear the expense of providing the proper stamp for such instrument, the first-mentioned person shall be entitled to recover from such other person the amount of the duty or penalty so paid.

(2) For the purpose of such recovery any certificate granted in respect of such instrument under this Act shall be conclusive evidence of the matters therein certified.

(3) Such amount may, if the Court thinks fit, be included in any order as to costs in any suit or proceeding to which such persons are parties and in which such instrument has been tendered in evidence. If the Court does not include the amount in such order, no further proceedings for the recovery of the amount shall be maintainable.

45. Power of Government to refund penalty or excess duty in certain cases

(1) Where any penalty is paid under section 35 or section 40, [the Government] may, upon application in writing made within one year from the date of the payment, refund such penalty wholly or in part.

\(^1\) Substituted for “Revenue Minister” by Act X of 1996.
(2) Where, in the opinion of \[the Government\], stamp duty in excess of that which is legally chargeable has been charged and paid under section 35 or section 40, it may, upon application in writing made within three months of the order charging the same, refund the excess.

46. Non-liability for loss of instruments under section 38

(1) If any instrument sent to the Collector under section 38, sub-section (2), is lost, destroyed or damaged during transmission, the person sending the same shall not be liable for such loss, destruction or damage.

(2) When any instrument is about to be so sent, the person from whose possession it came into the hands of the person impounding the same, may require a copy thereof to be made at the expense of such first-mentioned person and authenticated by the person impounding such instrument.

47. Power of payer to stamp bills and promissory notes received by him unstamped

When any bill of exchange or promissory note chargeable with the duty of one rupee is presented for payment unstamped, the person to whom it is so presented may affix there to the necessary adhesive stamp, and, upon cancelling the same in manner hereinbefore provided, may pay the sum payable upon such bill note, and may charge the duty against the person who ought to have paid the same, or deduct it from the sum payable as aforesaid, and such bill shall, so far as respects the duty, be deemed good and valid:

Provided that nothing herein contained shall relieve any person from any penalty or proceeding to which he may be liable in relation to such bill.

48. Recovery of duties and penalties

All duties, penalties and other sums required to be paid under this Chapter may be recovered by the Collector by distress and sale of the movable property of the person from whom the same are due, or by any other process for the time being in force for the recovery of arrears of land revenue.

CHAPTER V

ALLOWANCES FOR STAMPS IN CERTAIN CASES

49. Allowances for spoiled stamps

Subject to such rules as may be made by \[the Government\] as to the evidence to be required, or the enquiry to be made, the Collector may, on application made within the period prescribed in section 50, and if he is satisfied as to the facts, make allowance for stamps spoiled in the cases hereinafter mentioned, namely:-

---

1 Substituted for “Revenue Minister” by Act X of 1996
2 “Cheque” or “or cheque” omitted and words in brackets inserted by Act XI of 1993.
4 See footnote under Section 9
(a) the stamp on any paper inadvertently and undesignedly spoiled, obliterated or by error in writing or any other means rendered unfit for the purpose intended before any instrument written therein is executed by any person;
(b) the stamp on any document which is written out wholly or in part, but which is not signed or executed by any party thereto;
(c) in the case of bills of exchange payable otherwise than on demand or promissory notes— (1) the stamp on any bill of exchange signed by or on behalf of the drawer which has not been accepted or made use of in any manner whatever or delivered out of his hands for any purpose other than by way of tender for acceptance; provided that the paper on which any such stamp is impressed does not bear any signature intended as or for the acceptance of any bill of exchange payable otherwise than on demand or promissory note signed by or on behalf of the drawer, whether presented for acceptance or accepted or endorsed, or, being a promissory note, may have been delivered to the payee; provided that another completed and duly stamped bill of exchange or promissory note is produced identical in every particular, except in the correction of such omission or error as aforesaid, with the spoiled bill or note;
(d) the stamp used for an instrument executed by any party thereto which — (1) has been afterwards found, to be absolutely void in law from the beginning; (2) has been afterwards found unfit, by reason of any error or mistake therein, for the purpose originally intended; (3) by reason of the death of any person by whom it is necessary that it should be executed, without having executed the same, or of the refusal of any such person to execute the same, cannot be completed so as to effect the intended transaction in the form proposed; (4) for want of the execution thereof by some material party, and his inability or refusal to sign the same, is in fact incomplete and insufficient for the purpose for which it was intended; (5) by reason of the refusal of any person to act under the same, or to advance any money intended to be thereby secured, or by the refusal or non-acceptance of any office thereby granted, totally fails of the intended purpose; (6) becomes useless in consequence of the transaction intended to be thereby effected being effected by some other instrument between the same parties and bearing a stamp of not less value;

1 "Cheque" or "or cheque" omitted and words in brackets inserted by Act XI of 1993.>
(7) is deficient in value and the transaction intended to be thereby effected has been effected by some other instrument between the same parties and bearing a stamp of not less value;

(8) is inadvertently and undersignedly spoiled, and in lieu whereof another instrument made between the same parties and for the same purpose is executed and duly stamped:

Provided that in the case of an executed instrument no legal proceeding has been commenced in which the instrument could or would have been given or offered in evidence and that the instrument is given up to be cancelled.

Explanation. — The certificate of the Collector under section 32 that the full duty with which the instrument is chargeable has been paid is an impressed stamp within the meaning of this section.

50. Application for relief under section 49 when to be made

The application for relief under section 49 shall be made within the following periods, that is to say,-

(1) in the cases mentioned in clause (d) (5) within two months of the date of the instrument;

(2) in the case of a stamped paper on which no instrument has been executed by any of the parties thereto within six months after the stamp has been spoiled;

(3) in the case of a stamped paper in which an instrument has been executed by any of the parties thereto, within six months after the date of the instrument or, if it is not dated, within six months after the execution thereof by the person by whom it was first or alone executed:

Provided that,-

(a) when the spoiled instrument has been for sufficient reasons sent out of the State, the application may be made within six months after it has been received back in the State,

(b) when, from unavoidable circumstances, any instrument for which another instrument has been substituted cannot be given up to be cancelled within the aforesaid period, the application may be made within six months after the date of execution of the substituted instrument.

51. Allowance in case of printed forms no longer required by corporations

The Commissioner of Stamps or the Collector if empowered by the Commissioner of Stamps in this behalf may, without limit of time, make allowance for stamped papers used for printed forms of instruments by any banker or by any incorporated company or other body corporate, if for any sufficient reason such forms have ceased to be required by the said banker, company or body corporate; provided that such authority is satisfied that the duty in respect of such stamped papers has been duly paid.

52. Allowance for misused stamps
(a) When any person has inadvertently used, for an instrument chargeable with duty, a stamp of a description other than that prescribed for such instrument by the rules made under this Act, or a stamp of greater value than was necessary, or has inadvertently used any stamp for an instrument not chargeable with any duty; or
(b) when any stamp used for an instrument has been inadvertently rendered useless under section 15, owing to such instrument having been written in contravention of the provisions of section 13;
the Collector may, on application made within six months after the date of the instrument, or, if it is not dated, within six months after the execution thereof by the person by whom it was first or alone executed, and upon the instrument, if chargeable with duty, being re-stamped with the proper duty, cancel and allow as spoiled the stamp so misused or rendered useless.

53. Allowance for spoiled or misused stamps how to be made
In any case in which allowance is made for spoiled or misused stamps, the Collector may give in lieu thereof—
(a) other stamps of the same description and value; or
(b) if required and he thinks fit, stamps of any other description to the same amount in value; or
(c) at his discretion, the same value in money, deduction [fifteen paise] for each rupee or fraction of a rupee.

54. Allowance for stamps not required for use
When any person is possessed of a stamp or stamps which have not been spoiled or rendered unfit or useless for the purpose intended, but for which he has no immediate use, the Collector shall repay to such person the value of such stamp or stamps in money, deducting [fifteen paise] for each rupee or portion of a rupee, upon such person delivering up the same to be cancelled, and proving to the Collector's satisfaction
(a) that such stamp or stamps were purchased by such person with a bonafide intention to use them; and
(b) that he has paid the full price thereof; and
(c) that they were so purchased within the period of six months next preceding the date on which they were so delivered:
Provided that, where the person is a licensed vendor of stamps, the Collector may, if he thinks fit, make the repayment of the sum actually paid by the vendor without any such deduction as aforesaid.

1 Substituted by Act VI of 1958 for "two annas."
[54-A Allowance for stamps in denominations of Paise

Notwithstanding anything contained in section 54, when any person is in possession of a stamp or stamps in any denominations other than in denominations of [one rupee] or multiples thereof and such stamp or stamps has or have not been spoiled, the Collector shall repay to such person the value of such stamp or stamps in money calculated in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (2) of section 14 of the Indian Coinage Act, 1906 (3 of 1906), upon such person delivering up with fifteen months from the commencement of the Jammu and Kashmir Stamp (Amendment) Act, 1958 (VI of 1958), such stamps or stamps to the collector.]

55. Allowance on renewal of certain debentures

When any duly stamped debenture is renewed by the issue of a new debenture in the same terms, the Collector shall, upon application made within one month, repay to the person issuing such debenture, the value of the stamp on the original or on the new debenture, whichever shall be less:

Provided that the original debenture is produced before the Collector and cancelled by him in such manner as the Government may direct.

Explanation. — A debenture shall be deemed to be renewed in the same terms within the meaning of this section notwithstanding the following changes:-

(a) the issue of two or more debentures in place of one original debenture, the total amount secured being the same;

(b) the issue of one debenture in place of two or more original debentures, the total amount secured being the same;

(c) the substitution of the name of the holder at the time of renewal for the name of the original holders; and

(d) the alteration of the rate of interest or the dates of payment thereof.

CHAPTER VI

REFERENCE AND REVISION

56. Control of Government and statement of case to [Commissioner of Stamps]

(1) The powers exercisable by a Collector under Chapter IV and Chapter V and under clause (a) of the first provision to section 26 shall in all cases be subject to the control of the Government.

(2) If any Collector, acting under section 31, section 40 or section 41, feels doubts as to the amount of duty with which any instrument is chargeable, he may draw up a statement of the case, and refer it, with his own opinion thereon, for the decision of the Commissioner of Stamps.

(3) Such authority shall consider the case and send a copy of its decision to the Collector, who shall proceed to assess and charge the duty (if any) in conformity with such decision.

2[57. Statement of case by Commissioner of Stamps to High Court
The Commissioner of Stamps may state any case referred to him under, subsection (2) of section 56 or otherwise coming to his notice, and refer such case, with his own opinion thereon, to the High Court.

Explanation. — Any reference to “Revenue Minister” in this Act shall, unless the context otherwise requires, be construed as reference to the Commissioner of Stamps.]

58. Power of High Court to call for further particulars as to case stated
If the High Court is not satisfied that the statements contained in the case are sufficient to enable to it determine the questions raised thereby, the Court may refer the case back to the Revenue authority by which it was stated, to make such additions thereto or alterations therein as the Court may direct in that behalf.

59. Procedure in disposing of case stated
(1) The High Court, upon the hearing of any such case, shall decide the questions raised thereby, and shall deliver its judgment thereon containing the grounds on which such decision is founded.

(2) The Court shall send to the Revenue authority by which the case was stated a copy of such judgment under the seal of the Court and the Signature of the Registrar; and the Revenue authority shall, on receiving such copy, dispose of the case conformably to such judgment.

60. Statement of case by other Courts to High Court
(1) If any Court other than a Court mentioned in section 57, feels doubt as to the amount of duty to be paid in respect of any instrument under proviso (a) to section 35, the Judge may draw up a statement of the case and refer it, with his own opinion thereon, for the decision of the High Court to which, if he were the Revenue Minister, he would, under section 57, refer the same.

(2) Such Court shall deal with the case as if it had been referred under section 57, and send a copy of its judgment under the seal of the Court and the signature of the Registrar to the Revenue Minister and other like copy to the Judge making the reference, who shall, on receiving such copy, dispose of the case conformably to such judgment.

(3) Reference made under sub-section (1), when made by a court subordinate to a District Court, shall be made through the District Court, and, when made by

1 Substituted for “Revenue Minister” by Act III of 2006, w.e.f. 6.1.2006.
2 Substituted by Act III of 2006, w.e.f. 6.1.2006.
any subordinate revenue Court, shall be made through the Court immediately superior.

61. Revision of certain decisions of Courts regarding the sufficiency of stamps

(1) When any Court in the exercise of its civil or revenue jurisdiction or any Criminal Court in any proceeding under Chapter XII or Chapter XXXVI of the Code of Criminal Procedure, makes any order admitting any instrument in evidence as duly stamped or as not requiring a stamp or upon payment of duty and a penalty under section 35, the Court to which appeals lie from, or reference are made by, such first mentioned Court may, of its own motion or on the application of the Collector, take such order into consideration.

(2) If such Court, after such consideration, is of opinion that such instrument should not have been admitted in evidence without the payment of duty and penalty under section 35, or without the payment of a higher duty and penalty than those paid, it may record a declaration to that effect, and determine the amount of duty with which such instrument is chargeable, and may require any person in whose possession or power such instrument then is, to produce the same, and may impound the same when produced.

(3) When any declaration has been recorded under sub-section (2), the Court recording the same shall send a copy thereof to the Collector, and, where the instrument to which it relates has been impounded or is otherwise in the possession of such Court, shall also send him such instrument.

(4) The Collector may thereupon, notwithstanding anything contained in the order admitting such instrument in evidence, or in any certificate granted under section 42, or in section 43, prosecute any person for any offence against the stamp-law which the Collector considers him to have committed in respect of such instrument:

Provided that-

(a) no such prosecution shall be instituted where the amount (including duty and penalty) which, according to the determination of such Court, was payable in respect of the instrument under section 35, is paid to the Collector, unless he thinks that the offence was committed with an intention of evading payment of the proper duty;

(b) except for the purposes of such prosecution, no declaration made under this section shall affect the validity of any order admitting any instrument in evidence, or of any certificate granted under section 42.

(5) Any other order made by a Court under the provision of this Act shall be appealable in the ordinary way.
CHAPTER VII
CRIMINAL OFFENCES AND PROCEDURE

62. Penalty for executing etc., instrument not duly stamped
(1) Any person-
(a) drawing, making, issuing, endorsing or transferring, signing otherwise than as a witness, or presenting for acceptance or accepting, paying or receiving payment of, or in any manner negotiating any bill of exchange [payable otherwise than on demand] or promissory note without the same being duly stamped; or
(b) executing or signing otherwise than as a witness any other instrument chargeable with duty without the same being duly stamped; or
(c) voting or attempting to vote under any proxy not duly stamped; shall for every such offence be punishable with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees: or ten times the amount of the deficiency where this exceeds five hundred rupees:

Provided that when any penalty has been paid in respect of any instrument under section 35, section 40 or section 61, the amount of such penalty shall be allowed in reduction of the fine (if any) subsequently imposed under this section in respect of the same instrument upon the person who paid such penalty.

Illustrations
(1) If a Hundi which ought to have been executed on a fifteen paise stamped paper is executed on a ten paise stamp paper, the fine may extend to rupees one hundred.
(2) If a conveyance which ought to have been executed on a stamped paper of Rs. 500, is executed on a stamped paper of Rs. 300 the fine may extend to Rs. 2,000.
(2) If a share-warrant is issued without being duly stamped, the company issuing the same, and also every person who, at the time when it is issued, is the managing director or secretary or other principal officer of the company, shall be punishable with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees.

63. Penalty for failure to cancel adhesive stamps
Any person required by section 12 to cancel an adhesive stamp, and failing to cancel such stamp in manner prescribed by that section, shall be punishable with fine which may extend to ten thousand rupees.

64. Penalty for omission to comply with provisions of section 27
Any person who, with intent to defraud the Government,
